From November 17th to 21st, the Dubai Airshow 2019 took place at Dubai's 'World Central' Airport.

The two ARTS representants met with key aerospace players in the region including Etihad Engineering, Emirates Airlines, EDGE, Collins Aerospace, Falcon Aviation Service, AKKA, Click Aviation Network, MSI, Aerogulf, JAC and many more.

'We noticed a very strong presence of Saudi aerospace companies and national Saudi capability development and are delighted, that we established new relations with prominent Saudi companies, such as Al Salam, SAMI and GDC Middle East.' says Mahmoud Zarif. 'We are also happy to announce, that we signed a memorandum of understanding with GAL, a major military aviation maintenance services provider, and an EDGE subsidiary in platforms and systems cluster.'

Marc Bouzaid as well adds: 'ARTS has created a very reliable partnerships in the region and has embarked on an expansion initiative. We see huge demand and potential in this region for our services, and the UAE is the perfect location for us to establish our regional footprint, as it geographically connects global markets, the Middle East with Europe, Africa and Asia.'
